- Students starting at VGUH in SS 24 have to follow steps 1) – 6):

- The following applies to new students:
  - mandatory placement tests: after registration (see step 2b); start from Feb. 7th, 2024
  - Separate enrollment procedures apply to students who receive their letters of acceptance/residence permits after the general enrollment deadline. Please ask at the VGUH-office (office@vguh.at) and check our website regularly (www.vguh.at).
- Regular courses at VGUH:
  - Students with imposed German language exam (EPD) requirements:
The courses for German at level I, II, III are comprised of a basic course (12 German lessons per week) and a compulsory elective course (3 German lessons per week), which are to be taken at the same level. To pass the semester, both courses (basic and elective) have to be passed.
  - Students with (additionally) imposed subject exams:
Subject courses can be attended at German-level III, English from level II.
At level III the compulsory elective German course is not required.
  - All courses have ongoing assessment. Attendance of 80% is mandatory.
New students: Attendance score starts after course selection.
Continuing students: Attendance score starts on February 28th, 2024.
  - Technical equipment (laptop, computer etc.) is required as distance learning may also have to take place in SS 24.
- Course selection: (s. step 8 above)
After submitting your confirmation of registration, you choose your courses yourself in your VGUH-account.
