Information about course registration in winter semester 2022/2023

1 Continuing students

Students with Ukrainian citizenship who already attended one or more courses within the University Preparation Programme (at VWU or one of its cooperation partners) in summer semester 2022 or earlier, may register for a course in winter semester 2022/2023 at VWU from July 1st until July 7th 2022 with a subsidized course fee of €508. Continuing students who register only after July 7th 2022 for a course at VWU may not be guaranteed a course place at VWU. Students concerned are asked to contact VWU office via email (vwu@vwu.at).

Condition:

Registration is only possible for students who have not attended courses for more than 3 semesters. Students who have already attended courses within the University Preparation Programme for four semesters, need to apply in person for a 5th semester on July 1st or July 4th. Students concerned need to contact VWU office via email (vwu@vwu.at) before July 1st and make an appointment (find more information on www.vwu.at).

Registration process:

Eligible students will be contacted by VWU office via email until June 23rd and provided with the registration and payment modalities. Students who have not received an email until June 23rd are to contact VWU office (vwu@vwu.at).

2 First semester students

Students with Ukrainian citizenship who have never attended a course within the University Preparation Programme (at VWU or one of its cooperation partners), enter all their data on <https://anmeldung.vwu.at/vorregistrierung> from August 19th until September 2nd and upload their admission letter and the first page (photo and personal data) of their passport. They will be put on a waiting list until the beginning of September, when they will be informed, whether they may attend a course at VWU for a subsidized course fee in winter semester 2022/2023 or not. If not, they may only attend a course at one of the cooperation partners for a nonsubsidized course fee of €1275 in winter semester 2022/2023.
